You are going to give a talk about WORK.	The text of the monologue	Vocabulary, Grammar Structures, Linking Words and Phrases
Step 1. Introduction 1. Start with a hook sentence that will attract the listener's attention (a quote, a proverb, etc.). 2. Lead your speech steadily to the main part of your talk. 3. The introduction may consist of 3-6 sentences.
Step 2. Jobs 2.1 Which of the jobs you know would you like to do? Which wouldn't you like to do? Why?  2.2 What are the most important things for you in your future job?	The job, what I would like to work is a programmer because I have always been fascinated by technology and computers. To work as a programmer you need hard skills. I enjoy solving problems and working on projects that require logical thinking. Being a programmer would allow me to use my skills and creativity to create innovative software and applications. Additionally, there is a high demand for programmers in today's job market, which means there would be plenty of career opportunities and job security. Programmer is very challenging and exciting job. On the other hand, I wouldn't like to be a soldier. While I respect and admire the bravery and sacrifice of those who serve in the military, it is not a job that aligns with my interests and values. I am more inclined towards working in a peaceful and technologically-driven field like programming. Moreover, the risks associated with being a soldier, including being in combat situations and being away from family for long periods of time, are not something I am willing to undertake. Moreover, a soldier is a very tedious and stressful profession In my future job, the most important things for me would be job satisfaction, work-life balance, and the opportunity for personal and professional growth. I believe that enjoying the	Job  hard skills  challenging  exciting  tedious  stressful  to have flexible  hours  haven't a lot of  routine  paperwork Additionally(2)  On the other  hand  Moreover  I believe  Furthermore The job, what I  would like to  work is a  programmer  because I have  always been  fascinated by  technology and  computers I wouldn't like to  be a soldier

	work I do and finding it fulfilling is crucial for my overall happiness and well-being. Additionally, I would like to have flexible hours, to have enough time to spend with my family and pursue my hobbies and interests outside of work.. Furthermore, I value continuous learning and development, so having the chance to expand my skills and knowledge would be significant for me. Moreover when you work as programmer you haven't a lot of routine paperwork	I enjoy solving problems and working on projects
Step 3. Homeworking 3.1 Speak about the reasons for homeworking, the advantages and disadvantages of working from home.	Nowadays, remote working or homeworking has become increasingly popular. There are several reasons why people choose to work from home. Firstly, it allows for greater flexibility in terms of working hours and location. Employees can better control their schedule and work from the comfort of their own home, getting rid of the need to commute daily to work every day, which take time-consuming. This can lead to be more productive and reduced stress levels. Secondly, working from home can provide a better work-life balance, as individuals can balance their professional responsibilities with personal commitments more effectively. However, working from home also has its disadvantages. One of the main challenges is the potential for isolation and lack of social interaction. When working remotely, there is limited face-to-face communication with colleagues, which can lead to feelings of loneliness and disconnection from the team. Moreover, home distractions can be a hindrance to productivity. It requires a great deal of self-discipline and organization to stay focused and motivated in a home environment where there may be various distractions such as household chores or family members.	to work  Employees flexibility(2)  to be more productive  increase  to commute daily to work  to develop time management  skills  better work-life balance  planing a work schedule  to work from home  take stime-consuming  to provide a creative environment Nowadays  Firstly  Secondly  However  Moreover  After all
3.2 Would you like to work from home? What would be the advantages/disadvantages for you?	Personally, I would like to have the option to work from home occasionally. The advantages of remote working, such as flexibility and a better work-life balance, are appealing to me. The advantages of remote work, such as flexibility and a better work-life balance, as well as the ability to provide a creative environment, attract me. I believe that having the ability to work from home when needed can increase my productivity and overall job satisfaction. After all, I also recognize the importance of face-to-face interactions and collaborative teamwork, so I wouldn't want to work from home exclusively. Finding a balance between the two would be ideal for me. In addition, in order to work from home, i need to develop time management skills and planing a work schedule.	I believe that  having the ability to work from home when needed can  increase my productivity and  overall job satisfaction

Step 4. CREATIVE THINKING          Introduce your own extra idea(s) on work that hasn't/haven't been mentioned before. Justify your choice. f
