Monologue on EDUCATION

You are going to give a talk about EDUCATION.	The text of the monologue	Vocabulary, Grammar Structures, Linking Words and Phrases
Step 1. Introduction 1. Start with a hook sentence that will attract the listener's attention (a quote, a proverb, etc.). 2. Lead your speech steadily to the main part of your talk. 3. The introduction may consist of 3-6 sentences.	Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world. This quote by Nelson Mandela embodies the essence of my belief in the transformative power of education. Education is not merely a process of acquiring knowledge; it is a journey that shapes our minds, expands our horizons, and empowers us to create a better future for ourselves and others. So, I would like to delve into the realm of Russian education, education of in over countries, about high education and about my reasons to chose my university	So Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world
Step 2. Education Issues 2.1. Speak about the educational system in the Russian Federation (for reference see ex.1, p.56). 2.2. Compare the educational system of any foreign country (for example, the UK, the USA, China, France, etc.) with the educational system of Russia. (Use expressions to show contrast and comparison. For reference see pp. 156, 159, 160, 162).	The educational system in the Russian Federation has a rich history and is renowned for its strong emphasis on academic excellence. However, like any system, it has its strengths and weaknesses. In one hand, one of the notable strengths of the Russian educational system is its rigorous academic curriculum, which equips students with a solid foundation in core subjects such as mathematics, natural sciences, and computer sciences. On the other hand, some critics argue that the system places too much emphasis on rote memorization and standardized testing, stifling creativity and critical thinking. In Russian compulsory education include primary school and secondary school Now, let's compare the educational system of the United States with that of Russia. While the U.S. education system is known for its emphasis on creativity, critical thinking, and student-centered learning, it is also criticized for its lack of uniformity and varying quality across different states. In contrast, the Russian educational system is more centralized and standardized, focusing on a comprehensive curriculum that aims to ensure a strong academic foundation for all students.	compulsory education primary school secondary school curriculum However In one hand On the other hand Now In contrast
Step 3. Higher Education 3.1. Speak about the benefits of higher education for you and other people.	As a rule, university degree is an integral part of any developed society. Thanks to the higher education system, the state receives highly qualified specialists, and people have the opportunity to develop and apply for higher positions and work in larger companies. This is also why the state invests a lot of money in the public education system, investments come back in the form of good	University degree higher education Peter the Great St. Petersburg Polytechnic University to get a Bachelor's degree

3.2. Why have you chosen Peter the Great St Petersburg Polytechnic University?	specialists and scientific discoveries From 4th to 11th grade, I studied at the Academy of Computer Science for Schoolchildren at the Peter the Great St. Petersburg Polytechnic University on courses in computer science and programming. In the 10th and 11th grades, I actively attended specialized educational and project shifts organized by the Academy of Talents and the Polytechnic University. In this regard, I chose the Polytechnic University as the place to get a Bachelor's degree. It would be strange if, given that I have interacted with the Polytechnic University for most of my adult life, I would have enrolled in another higher education institution. And, as a big benefit Polytechnic University have one of the best spacious campus in our city	public education spacious campus As a rule Thanks to This is also
